

Hidden amidst a rudimentary Scottsdale shopping center is a gift from the culinary gods to the rest of society, that gift is Andreoli's Italian Grocer. From the exterior Andreoli's appears to be an upscale deli, but once you step inside it's as if you have been transported into the heart of Italy. The aroma of homemade Italian delicacies wafts across the quaint yet rustic dining area, until the urge to indulge in a few entrees becomes unbearable.

Once the meal is presented it becomes a culinary experience that your taste buds have never nor will ever experience again. The flavors are so unique and vivacious that every other cuisine will pail in comparison to these masterful creations. Whether you have ordered the perfectly prepared pasta, the crispy Calabrese calamari, or the scintillating selection of specials, you are guaranteed to have every single culinary dream and expectation come to fruition.

Andreoli's true greatness lies behind the counter where one of a kind chef Giovanni Scorzzo, turns simple every day ingredients into culinary art. Gianni's passion for food emanates from him, and it becomes quite evident why his cuisine is a once in a lifetime experience for any patron.

Andreoli's combination of the essential elements of any restaurant has come together in fashion rarely seen. The ideal ambiance, illustrious chef, and immaculate cuisine have combined to form one of the most impressive restaurants Scottsdale has ever had the pleasure to house.

-Mario Paolo Zicarelli